The Tegen (O) Sentinel of two weeks ago contained a letter from Maj. J. W. STICKENOM, late editor of the Winchester (O.) Times, written from Plattsmouth, Nebraska, in which he says that it is a good country to go to, as the soil is rich and easily brought under cultivation.The attention of the people is directed to the advertisement of S. C.
SWIFT, Chillicothe, in this paper.
He has an elegant stock of goods for the Holiday Trade, at very low prices, and it would be best for everybody to give him a call or send him an order for anything in his line. Look over his advertisement and see what you want.Dr. N. J. Bowers, Dentist, McArthur, O.
We discontinued a number of subscriptions last week because they had not been renewed; and this week we have discontinued a number more for the same reason.
A number more of this class of subscriptions soon. Why is it that many people neglect to pay for their paper? Do they neglect to read it each week?"J. N." Visits Us.—We omitted to say in our last paper that the great philosopher and orator, "J.
N." illuminated our sanctum on Friday, the 12th inst., by his personal presence. The Athens Messenger thus speaks of the immortal philosopher:"It was gratifying to at once perceive that this unchangeable philosopher—the same yesterday, to-day, and will be forever—continues sanguine of the ultimate practical vic-tication of his philosophical theory.
"J. N." alone of all others reasons not from a standpoint of prejudice.
To him alone it is given to unfold the truth in all her majestic and pristine beauty. With him there is no variability or shadow of turning. With him of all mundane existing intelligences, the primordial essence of everlasting and perennial truth—but we forebear. It is gratifying to be able to announce that this unfettered champion will, at Athenaeum Hall, on December 13th proximo, lift the veil of error and assume the pressure incident to a fearless advocacy of the sublime theory of which he is the author, and the only exponent capable of evolving its Cin-cinnian mysteries. Those afraid of the truth will of course stay away while those seeking light will be present to hear him. "J. N." requests us to make known his high appreciation of the people of Athens, and to say that he desires a large audience on the 13th of next month, so that he can effectively vindicate principles for which he alone is responsible.HOLIDAY attractions in great abundance will be found in the January number of THE MODEL PAPER MAGAZINE, and a valuable premium to each subscriber. DEM-ONSTRATION'S MONTHLY stands unrivaled as a family Magazine. Its choice literature, its superior music, its large amount of valuable information, its practical and reliable fashions, and artistic illustrations, give it a just claim to its well earned title, "The Model Magazine of America." You cannot do without circular of the National Grange, the whole number of subordinate National Granges to date is $5,774, with a membership of 643, 125. The former slave states are well represented in this, there being 2,946 Granges within their bounds. Only the States of Connecticut, Rhode Island and Delaware are left without any organization at all, the two latter being but little engaged in agriculture, and Connecticut being half a century behind the age except in her cities and large towns. South Carolina is the banner state in the South, no distinction of color being recognized in this army of industry, while Kansas is strongest in Granges according to population, and Iowa in percentage of membership.VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE FOR 1874.

—The January number of this beautiful quarterly publication is even still more elegant than its predecessors, which is saying a good deal. The number before us contains 136 pages of letter-press, with illustrations on nearly every page, and is a far more accurate and reliable guide to all lovers and cultivators of flowers than many a duodecimo volume of far more greater pretensions. Besides containing full and explicit instructions on the growth and culture of flowers, it contains a complete list of all the novelties of the floral world. It is, in fact, a Floral Magazine which is indispensable to all lovers and cultivators. Published by JAMES VICK, Rochester, New York.A SPLENDID Holiday Present for the Juveniles.—Demorest's Young America, $1.00 a year, a brilliant and useful juvenile monthly that surpasses all others in its attractions. It contains numerous and beautiful engravings, entertaining stories, original music, and other spicy contributions render it indispensable in every household where it is introduced. The premiums offered to each subscriber are really wonderful, comprising among them juvenile books to the amount of $1.75, a fine chromo worth $5, a stereoscope with a series of views, a good microscope, and numerous other presents worth more than a ident Langley.

GALLIPOLIS, O., Dec. 15, 1873.

J. W. BOWEN:
DEAR SIR.—After seeing you on Thursday last I went up above CON-NELIUS KARNES, where Mr. KIRK PATRICK and his forces were at work, and, notwithstanding the same, I found the men working cheerfully and profitably, and building for you the cheapest railroad ever built in the State by great odds. Unless the weather proves too unfavorable, they will be ready to move their teams down between McArthur and the M. & C. Road last of this or forepart of next week, and if your subscribers promptly supply the means to pay them, you will soon have the gap graded between your town and the M. & C. Road. Everything looks promising for the speedy completion of the road, if all do their duty. We expect to have 75 to 100 additional men at work within ten days, south of the M. & C. Road, and intend pushing the work along with all the energy the circumstances will justify. I reached home last night and found letters here from Cincinnati that speak very encouragingly of a road from that city to McArthur. I wish them great success in the undertaking, and the same to another road seeking a connection with ours. If the people along the line of our road will act unitedly, and all contribute what they can spare, we will soon have the best paying railroad, for its length, in the State. The recent liberal action of the Vinton Coal and Iron Company, and its lessees will go far towards insuring the completion of our road. I will try and be with you before this week is out.
Respectfully Yours,
W. H. LANGLEY.The recently elected officers of the McArthur Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry were installed for the ensuing year, on Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the School House Hall. The names of the officers of this Grange are as follows: MASTER—W. N. England.
OVERSEER—H. H. Swaim.
LECTURER—D. V. Rannels.
STEWART—Geo. Wright.
ASST. STEWARD—Sam'l R. Ray.
CHAIRMAN—J. M. Dennison.
TREASURER—H. Robbins.
SECRETARY—E. Winters.
GATE-KEEPER—E. Hunter.
CELEBRITY—Mrs. M. England.
PIONEER—Miss Dora Swaim.
FLORA—Mrs. A. Ullom.
LADY ASST. STEWARD—Mrs. D.
V. Rannels.This Grange consists of 31 members.
At 8 o'clock on that evening the Grange gave a supper at the School House Hall. The supper was prepared in excellent style. Whocan say that the farmers—the members of the Grange—have not the best of good things to eat? The severity of the weather prevented a greater attendance from the country, but the citizens of the town, who were invited, made up for the deficit in that direction. The Hall was nearly full of happy people; good seats provided for all, and every one enjoyed the festival. The music was furnished by Prof. J. S. HULICK, who had two Estey Organs in the Hall.
This was the most pleasant gathering we ever witnessed in McArthur, and its mirth and joy, together with the occasion and its associations have left an impression which the "finger of time cannot obliterate."There will be a Ball at the Court House Hall, on Thursday (Christmas) evening, December 25. The supper will be given at the McArthur House, by H. REED & SOX; the music will be furnished by Prof.
J. T. BLACKBAND. GEORGE KALER, AARON WIL, O. D. HAWK, and LEV-ERETT PIERCE, are the Committee of Arrangements, and H. C. JONES, V.
R. SPRAGUE, L. D. MARTIN, A. F.
DRAKE, the Floor Committee.The State Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry at Iowa met at Des Moines on the 9th inst. There were about three hundred delegates in attendance. Delegates estimated that two-thirds of the hog crop of Iowa had gone forward, if not three-fourths. They say, however, that the best and heaviest hogs remain unsold. The corn crop is reported light—much lighter than they had estimated it in the fall before husking.The late flood swept off a great
